Seneca

Roman philosopher

“...The customs of that most criminal nation [the Jews] have gained such strength that they have now been received in all lands. The conquered have given laws to the conquerors.”

(De Superstitione)

~~Seneca shared the prejudices of Roman society against the Jews, although as a Stoic philosopher he should have been attracted by their self-restraint. His ethics correspond, to a certain extent, to the purer concepts of Judaism; and in this fact lies the explanation of the tradition that he was a Christian.~~

Cicero

Roman statesman and orator

“The Jews belong to a dark and repulsive force. One knows how numerous this clique is, how they stick together and what power they exercise through their unions. They are a nation of rascals and deceivers.”

“...We come now to the libel involving the gold, the Jewish gold. This is obviously why the present case is being tried close to the Aurelian Steps. It is because of this particular charge that you have sought out this location, Laelius [the prosecutor], and that mob [the noisy crowd of Jews assembled by Laelius to influence the trial]. You know how large a group they [the Jews] are, and how influential they are in politics. I will lower my voice and speak just loudly enough for the jury to hear me; for there are plenty of individuals to stir up those Jews against me and against every good Roman, and I don't intend to make it any easier for them to do this. Since gold was regularly exported each year in the name of the Jews from Italy and all our provinces to Jerusalem, Flaccus issued an edict forbidding its exportation from Asia. Who is there, gentlemen of the jury, who cannot sincerely commend this action? The exportation of gold had been forbidden by the Senate on many previous occasions, and most strictly of all during my consulship. Further, that Flaccus was opposed to this barbarous Jewish superstition was proof of his strong character that he defended the Republic by frequently denying the aggressiveness of the Jewish mobs at political gatherings was an evidence of his high sense of responsibility...” (Speech of Cicero, Jews of Ancient Rome by Harry J. Leon of the University of Texas, p. 3,).

~~It would appear, unless Cicero's words are merely a rhetorical flourish, that the Jews, who insisted on being present on an occasion that concerned them, surrounded the platform, and, supporting each other, became formidable through their numbers. The Jewish Encyclopedia.~~

Tacitus

Roman historian

“The customs of the Jews are base and abominable and owe their persistence to their depravity. Jews are extremely loyal to one another, always ready to show compassion, but towards every other people they feel only hate and enmity. As a race (the Jews are not a race, because they have mingled with the other races to the point that they are only a people, not a race), they are prone to lust; among themselves nothing is unlawful.”

~~In his history, written between 104 and 109 C.E., Tacitus devotes considerable space to the Jews. He derives his information from the Greek writers, and repeats the fable of the Jews being descendants of unclean persons, of lepers, etc... The Jewish Encyclopedia~~

Pope Clement VIII

“All the world suffers from the usury of the Jews, their monopolies and deceit. They have brought many unfortunate people into a state of poverty, especially the farmers, labourers and the very poor. Then as now Jews have to be reminded intermittently anew that they were enjoying rights in any country since they left Palestine and the Arabian desert, and subsequently their ethical and moral doctrines as well as their deeds rightly deserve to be exposed to criticism in whatever country they happen to live.”

The general principles governing the popes in their treatment of the Jews are practically identical with those laid down in the Justinian Code: (1) to separate them from social intercourse with Christians as far as possible; (2) to prevent them from exercising any authority over Christians, either in a public (as officials) or a private capacity (as masters or employers); (3) to arrange that the exercise of the Jewish religion should not assume the character of a public function. On the other hand, however, the popes have always condemned, theoretically at least, (1) acts of violence against the Jews, and (2) forcible baptism. The Jewish Encyclopedia

For reverence of his mooder Marie. Amen’

(Canterbury Tales, Prolog, The Prioress).

...Though the Prioress is Chaucer's creature, her voice cannot automatically be identified with his. An author, holding up a mirror to life, may express through his characters ideas which he himself would repudiate. However, the author may find himself on morally dubious ground if he insists on being an out-and-out realist, a recorder but not a commentator. He is responsible for his creatures, and he cannot be allowed carte blanche to publicize any point of view purely and simply on the grounds that there are people who say such things... <http://icg.harvard.edu/~chaucer/>, by Philip S. Alexander. From The Bulletin of the J. Rylands Library of Manchester 74 (1992).

...The most “creative” idea, in regard to purifying Chaucer of the anti-Semitic taint, was to make The Prioress’ Tale a sort of distorting mirror from which emanates a sarcastic critique of anti-Semitism by Chaucer. This is based mainly on the characterization of the prioress in the Prologue, where the author seems to accuse the nun of false piety and dual morality... Rhapsodic Anti-Semitism – Chaucer @ Eliot, NATIVE Journal 09/2002, Ariel Center for Policy Research

Martin Luther

Founder of the Protestant Church

“...But the Jews are so hardened that they listen to nothing; though overcome by testimonies they yield not an inch. It is a pernicious race, oppressing all men by their usury and rapine. If they give a prince or magistrate a thousand florins, they extort twenty thousand from the subjects in payment. We must ever keep on guard against them.” (Table Talk of Martin Luther, translated by William Hazlet, page 43)

“...They are the real liars and bloodhounds, who have not only perverted and falsified the entire Scriptures from beginning to end and without ceasing with their interpretations. And all of the anxious sighing, longing and hoping of their hearts is directed to the time when some day they would like to deal with us heathen as they dealt with the heathen in Persia at the time of Esther...On how they love the book of Esther, which so nicely agrees with their bloodthirsty, revengeful and murderous desire and hope. The sun never did shine on a more bloodthirsty and revengeful people as they, who imagine to be the people of God, and who desire to and think they must murder and crush the heathen” (The Jews and Their Lies)

“...Besides, you also have many Jews living in the country, who do much harm...You should know the Jews blaspheme and violate the name of our Savior day for day... for that reason you, Milords and men of authority, should not tolerate but expel them. They are our public enemies and incessantly blaspheme our Lord Jesus Christ, they call our Blessed Virgin Mary a harlot and her Holy Son a bastard and to us they give the epithet of changelings and abortions. Therefore, deal with them harshly as they do nothing but excruciatingly blaspheme our Lord Jesus Christ, trying to rob us of our lives, our health, our honor and belongings.” (Sermon at Eisleben, February, 1546)

~~The argument that the sufferings of the Jews are the just punishment for their rejection of Jesus is as common with him as with all medieval theologians. The totally different attitudes which he took at different times with regard to the Jews made him, during the anti-Semitic controversies of the end of the nineteenth century, an authority quoted alike by friends and enemies of the Jews. The Jewish Encyclopedia~~

Voltaire

18th century French philosopher

“You will only find in the Jews an ignorant and barbarous people, who for a long time have joined the most sordid avarice to the most detestable superstition and to the most invincible hatred of all peoples which tolerate and enrich them.” (under Juif, in Dictionnaire Philosophique)

“The Jewish nation dares to display an irreconcilable hatred toward all nations, and revolts against all masters; always superstitious, always greedy for the well-being enjoyed by others, always barbarous cringing in misfortune and insolent in prosperity.” (Essai sur le Moeurs)

~~It seems that, aside from his desire to select any subject apt to furnish an opportunity to display his humorous satire and give him a chance to attack the Bible, Voltaire had no intention of antagonizing the Jews. In his reply to Isaac de Pinto, who wrote an apology for the Jews entitled "Apologie pour la Nation Juive," Voltaire admitted as much. The Jewish Encyclopedia~~

Denis Diderot

Scholar

“...And you, angry and brutish people, vile and vulgar men, slaves worthy of the yoke which you bear ... Go, take back your books and remove yourselves from me.” (La Moissade)

“...[The Talmud] taught the Jews to steal the goods of Christians, to regard them as savage beasts, to push them over the precipice... to kill them with impunity and to utter every morning the most horrible imprecations against them.” (Encyclopédie, Juifs)

~~Although, like all the French encyclopedists, an apostle of tolerance, Diderot does not seem to have had much sympathy with the Jews and Judaism. He wrote the bright and interesting article on Jewish philosophy for the "Encyclopédie," but it shows a superficial acquaintance with the subject, and is not free from errors. The Jewish Encyclopedia~~

Benjamin Franklin

American statesman

“By this time, I fancy, your Excellency is satisfied that I was wrong in supposing J. de Neufville as much a Jew as any in Jerusalem, since Jacob was not content with any per cents, but took the whole of his Brother Esau's Birth-right, and his Posterity did the same by the Canaanites, and cut their Throats into the Bargain; which, in my Conscience, I do not think Mr. J. de Meufville has the least Inclination to do by us, while he can get anything by our being alive.” (The Writings of Benjamin Franklin, Vol. 8, The MacMillan Co., p. 345).

~~The Franklin Prophecy – known as the Franklin Fallacy or Forgery by those who refute it – appears in slightly different forms; in some cases only excerpts appear. Following is the version likely to be seen on the Internet: “I fully agree with General Washington, that we must protect this young nation from an insidious influence and penetration. That menace, gentlemen, is the Jews.... [etc]” Nothing in Franklin's writing or in any other recorded speech can be found that is anti-Semitic. Most importantly, the record and character of Benjamin Franklin refute the document. But the hoaxers...maintain that the diary is now in the possession of the Franklin Institute in Philadelphia,...Henry Butler Allen, director of the Institute... says that “historians and librarians have not been able to find [the diary] or any record of it having existed. The Franklin Prophecy: An Anti-Semitic Hoax Gets New Life on the Internet by Jeffrey Belodoff and Elyce Milette~~

Peter Stuyvesant

First governor of New-York

“The Jews who have arrived would nearly all like to remain here, but learning that they (with their customary usury and deceitful trading with the Christians) were very repugnant to the inferior magistrates, as also to the people having the most affection for you; the Deaconry also fearing that owing to their present indigence they might become a charge in the coming winter, we have, for the benefit of this weak newly developing place and land in general, deemed it useful to require them in a friendly way to depart; praying also most seriously in this connection, for ourselves also for the general community of your worships, that the deceitful race—such hateful enemies and blasphemers of the name of Christ—not be allowed further to infect and trouble this new colony.” (Letter to the Amsterdam Chamber of the Dutch West India Company, from New Amsterdam, September 22, 1654.)

~~Peter Stuyvesant, a Dutchman...was a person that reflected the bigoted attitudes of his time. He was a rabid anti-Semite that caused great suffering to the Jews. In 1654 the Portuguese recaptured Holland's Brazilian colony and a group of 23 Jewish refugees sought asylum in New Amsterdam (to become New York) where Stuyvesant was the governor. Stuyvesant wanted them expelled because he thought of them as Christ-killers and thieves but was stopped doing so by the Dutch West Indies Company because it had a number of Jewish shareholders and that company was vital to the health of the colony...David S. Napoleon Bonaparte

French statesman, general

“The Jews provided troops for my campaign in Poland, but they ought to reimburse me: I soon found that they are no good for anything but selling old clothes...”

“Legislating must be put in effect everywhere that the general well-being is in danger. The government cannot look with indifference on the way a despicable nation takes possession of all the provinces of France. The Jews are the master robbers of the modern age; they are the carrion birds of humanity... They must be treated with political justice, not with civil justice. They are surely not real citizens.”

“The Jews have practiced usury since the time of Moses, and oppressed the other peoples. Meanwhile, the Christians were only rarely usurers, falling into disgrace when they did so. We ought to ban the Jews from commerce because they abuse it... The evils of the Jews do not stem from individuals but from the fundamental nature of this people.” (Reflections, speeches before the Council of State on April 30 and May 7, 1806.)

“Nothing more contemptible could be done than the reception of the Jews by you. I decided to improve the Jews. But I do not want more of them in my kingdom. Indeed, I have done all to prove my scorn of the most vile nation in the world.” (Letter to his brother Jerome, King of Westphalia, March 6, 1808)

“(1) Every big and small Jew who is [in] the peddling trade must renew his license every year. (2) Checks and other obligations are only redeemable if the Jew can prove that he has obtained the money without cheating.” (Ordinance of March 17, 1808. Napoleonic Code.)

It would appear that one of Napoleon's main objects in his Jewish policy was to promote assimilation by intermarriage (see "Arch. Isr." 1841, p. 40). Napoleon throughout made a great distinction between Jews of the Rhine provinces and the "New Christians" of Bordeaux and southern France, and it was considered a special privilege to the Jews of Paris that they were declared to belong to the latter class.... But Napoleon's indirect influence on the fate of the Jews was even more powerful than any of the decrees recorded in his name. By breaking up the feudal trammels of mid-Europe and introducing the equality of the French Revolution he effected more for Jewish emancipation than had been accomplished during the three preceding centuries.... The Jewish Encyclopedia

Karl Marx

Founder of communism

“...What is the secular cult of the Jews? Huckstering. What is his secular god? Money!... Money is the jealous god of Israel before whom no other god may exist... What is contained abstractly in the Jewish religion [is] contempt for theory, for art, history, for man himself.” (On the Jewish Question)

“...Take Amsterdam, for instance, a city harboring many of the worst descendants of the Jews whom Ferdinand and Isabella drove out of Spain and who, after lingering a while in Portugal, were driven out of there too and eventually found a place of retreat in Holland Here and there and everywhere that a little capital courts investment, there is ever one of these little Jews ready to make a little suggestion or place a little bit of a loan ... [T]hese loans, which are a curse to the people, a ruin to the holders, and a danger to the Governments, become a blessing to the houses of the children of Judah....” (Article “The Russian Loan” January 4, 1856.)

“...It is now absolutely clear to me that, as both the shape of his head and his hair texture show—he [the Jew] descends from the Negroes who joined Moses' flight from Egypt (unless his mother or grandmother on the paternal side hybridized with a nigger). Now this combination of Germanness and Jewishness with a primarily Negro substance creates a strange product. The pushiness of the fellow is also nigger-like....” (July 30, 1862, letter to Engels about his rival for the leadership of the German Socialist movement, Ferdinand Lassalle.)

~~...There is a bulky output of literature alleging that Marx's essay On the Jewish Question is anti-Semitic because it equates Jewry with the spirit of money-making, the merchant-huckster, preoccupation with self-interest and egoism—that is, with the commercialism of the new bourgeois order... Mainly, the allegation is supported by reading the attitudes of the second half of the twentieth century back into the language of the 1840s. More than that, it is supported only if the whole course of German and European anti-Jewish sentiment is whitewashed, so as to make Marx's essay stand out as a black spot... William T. Sherman

General

“...I found so many Jews and speculators here trading in cotton, and secessionists had become so open in refusing anything but gold, that I have felt myself bound to stop it. The gold can have but one use—the purchase of arms and ammunition...Of course, I have respected all permits by yourself or the Secretary of Treasury, but in these new cases I have stopped it. The cotton speculators are quite clamorous for aid in getting their cotton away from Middleburg, Hickory Valley, etc., and offer to pay liberally for the service. I think I can bring it away with safety, and make pay to the government. As some of the Jew owners have as good as stolen the cotton from the planters, I have no conscientious scruples in making them pay liberally to take it away.” (In a letter written from Memphis, July 30, 1862).

“The Jews, as a class violating every regulation of trade established by the Treasury Department and also department orders, are hereby expelled from the Department within twenty-four hours from the receipt of this order. Post commanders will see that all of this class of people be furnished passes and required to leave, and any one returning after such notification will be arrested and held in confinement until an opportunity occurs of sending them out as prisoners, unless furnished with permit from headquarters. No passes will be given these people to visit trade headquarters for the purpose of making personal application for trade permits.” (General Order No. 11, By order of Maj. General U.S. Grant, Jno. A. Rawlins, Assistant Adjutant-General, Commander of the Thirteenth Army Corps, Department of Tennessee).

“I have long since believed that in spite of all the vigilance that can be infused into post commanders, the specie regulations of the Treasury Department have been violated and that mostly by Jews and other unprincipled traders. So well satisfied have I been of this that I instructed the commanding officer at Columbus to refuse all permits to Jews to come south, and I have frequently had them expelled from the department, but they come in with their carpet-sacks in spite of all that can be done to prevent it. The Jews seem to be a privileged class that can travel anywhere...” (Grant, writing to the Assistant Secretary of War, C.P. Wolcott, December 17, 1862, from the Headquarters of the Thirteenth Army Corps at Oxford, Mississippi).

Fyodor Dostoevsky

Writer

...“Alyosha, is it true that at Easter the Jews steal a child and kill it?”
“I don't know.”

“There's a book here in which I read about the trial of a Jew, who took a child of four years old and cut off the fingers from both hands, and then crucified him on the wall, hammered nails into him and crucified him, and afterwards, when he was tried, he said that the child died soon, within four hours. That was 'soon'! He said the child moaned, kept on moaning and he stood admiring it. That's nice!”

“Nice?”

“Nice; I sometimes imagine that it was I who crucified him. He would hang there moaning and I would sit opposite him eating pineapple compote. I am awfully fond of pineapple compote. Do you like it?”

Alyosha looked at her in silence. Her pale, sallow face was suddenly contorted, her eyes burned.

“You know, when I read about that Jew I shook with sobs all night. I kept fancying how the little thing cried and moaned (a child of four years old understands, you know), and all the while the thought of pineapple compote haunted me...” (An excerpt from his novel Brothers Karamazov)

“...In the areas where Jews live, ask the original Russian population: what is driving the Jews and what has been driving them for so many centuries? You will receive one answer: ‘pitilessness; all these centuries they were driven only by their pitilessness towards us and only by their thirst for our sweat and our blood’.” (Writer's Diaries 1873, The Jewish Question,)

~~...It is disparaging...that as the true novelist of ideas and Christian love, Dostoevsky could harbor such ill will towards the Jews. Does this not discredit everything he has written?...With all his authority as a writer, Dostoevsky endorses anti-Semitism. This scene [with Alyosha] illustrates the extent of Dostoevsky's hatred against the Jewish people. He is blinded by his own idea of "Messianic Russia". Invariably, the exclusive love he bore for Russia does not enable him to love all of mankind like his fallen character, Alyosha.... “...In the England of John's time everybody got into debt to the Jew. He gathered all lucrative enterprises into his hands. He was the King of Commerce. He had to be banished from the realm. For like reasons, Spain had to banish him 400 years ago, and Austria a couple of centuries later.

“In all ages Christian Europe has been obliged to curtail his activities. If he entered upon a trade, the Christian had to retire from it. If he set up as a doctor, he took the business. If he exploited agriculture, the other farmers had to get at something else. The law had to step in to save the Christian from the poor-house. Still, almost bereft of employments, he found ways to make money. Even to get rich. This history has a most sordid and practical commercial look. Religious prejudices may account for one part of it, bit not for the other nine.

“Protestants have persecuted Catholics—but they did not take their livelihoods away from them. Catholics have persecuted Protestants—but they never closed agriculture and the handicrafts against them. I feel convinced that the Crucifixion has not much to do with the world's attitude toward the Jew; that the reasons for it are much older than that event ...

“I am convinced that the persecution of the Jew is not in any large degree due to religious prejudice. No, the Jew is a money-getter. He made it the end and aim of his life. He was at it in Rome. He has been at it ever since. His success has made the whole human race his enemy...

“I am assured by men competent to speak that the Jews are exceedingly active in politics...”

(Concerning the Jews, Harper's Monthly Magazine, September 1899)

...Twain argued that prejudice against Jews derived neither from their public conduct nor their religion, but from envy that Christians felt toward Jewish economic achievements. He cited the speech of a German lawyer who wanted the Jews driven from Berlin because, according to the lawyer, “eighty-five percent of the successful lawyers of Berlin were Jews.”... Twain observed that envy “is a much more hate-inspiring thing than is any detail connected with religion.”... When Twain died in 1910, the American Jewish press mourned. His obituaries in that press often reprinted the words of the president of New York’s Hebrew Technical School for Girls: “In one of Mr. Clemens’s works he expressed his opinion of men, saying he had no choice between Hebrew and Gentile, black men or white; to him, all men were alike.” Mark Twain and the Jews, American Jewish Historical Society

“...Liberalism, in the case of the Jew, means internationalism. If you listen to Jews discuss Jews, you will find they are money-minded, very sharp in practice. The Jews lack the fine integrity which at last is endorsed, and to a certain degree followed, by lawyers of other nationalities. The Jew has been in Germany for a thousand years, and he is still a Jew. He has been in America for all of 200 years, and he has not faded into a pure American by any means—and he will not.” (Letter to Hutchins Hapgood, The Nation magazine, April 17, 1935)

Henry Ford

Industrialist

"...There had been observed in this country certain streams of influence which are causing a marked deterioration in our literature, amusements, and social conduct...a nasty Orientalism which had insidiously affected every channel of expression...The fact that these influences are all traceable to one racial source [Jews] is something to be reckoned with...Our opposition is only in ideas, false ideas, which are sapping the moral stamina of the people." (My Life and Work)

"If it is 'anti-Semitism' to say that communism in the United States is Jewish, so be it; but to the unprejudiced mind it will look very much like Americanism. Communism all over the world, not in Russia only, is Jewish." (Statement of 1922)

"The only statement I care to make about the Protocols is that they fit in with what is going on. They are sixteen years old, and they have fitted the world situation up to this time. They fit it now." (Interview, New York World, February 17, 1921)

~~...When Hitler exited prison, the first birthday present he received was Ford's autobiography in German. The only American mentioned in Mein Kampf is Ford. Hitler described him, Baldwin recalls, as the only American "who truly understands what we are trying to accomplish here in Germany."... In 1938, Hitler awarded Ford the Grand Service Cross of the Supreme Order of the German Eagle, a Nazi honor for foreigners. "It was awarded by the German consul general in Detroit in a big ceremony on Ford's 75th birthday," Baldwin notes. "It was not a surprise. Ford knew the medal was coming; he had a chance to turn it down, and he said absolutely not."... Writer

“The Jews looked for a special savior, a messiah, who was to redeem mankind by the agreeable process of restoring the fabulous glories of David and Solomon, and bringing the whole world at last under the firm but benevolent Jewish heel.” (The Outline of History)

“Zionism is an expression of Jewish refusal to assimilate. If the Jews have suffered, it is because they have regarded themselves as a chosen people.” (The Anatomy of Frustration)

“A careful study of anti-Semitism prejudice and accusations might be of great value to many Jews, who do not adequately realize the irritations they inflict.” (Letter of November 11, 1933)

“Wells was in the habit of referring to Karl Marx as ‘a shallow third-rate Jew,’ and ‘a lousy Jew’ in private correspondence”. (Norman MacKenzie, H. G. Wells)

~~...H. G. Wells was one of the most determined imperialists. His vision was one of a great white world ruled by scientific technocrats (see for example his Shape of Things To Come). This new social order depended, he thought, on the sweeping away of all other cultures, indeed peoples; those “teeming millions of Blacks, Yellows and Browns will have to go”. The idea that the Fabians were a peace loving lot still somehow persists. Actually they were quite happy with violence (or most of them were) as long as it served ‘progressive’ ends, hence their attitude to the Russian Revolution as well as to imperialism... Charles Lindbergh, Jr.

Aviator, writer.

“We are disturbed about the effect of the Jewish influence in our press, radio and motion pictures. It may become very serious. [Fulton] Lewis told us of one instance where the Jewish advertising firms threatened to remove all their advertising from the Mutual system if a certain feature were permitted to go on the air. The threat was powerful enough to have the feature removed.” (Speech of Wednesday, August 23, 1939)

“The pressure for war is high and mounting. The people are opposed to it, but the Administration seems to have 'the bit in its teeth' and is hell-bent on its way to war. Most of the Jewish interests in the country are behind war, and they control a huge part of our press and radio and most of our motion pictures. There are the 'intellectuals' and the 'Anglophiles', and the British agents who are allowed free rein, the international financial interests, and many others.” (The Wartime Journals Thursday, May 1, 1941)

~~...While Reeve offers such tender anecdotes, she doesn't flinch from her father's misguided isolationist politics and the now-infamous speech he gave in Des Moines urging against the United States' entry into World War II. Lindbergh argued that the three groups urging entry into the war were the British, the Roosevelt administration and the Jews. The speech led people to brand Lindbergh an anti-Semite. “...This movement among the Jews is not new. From the days of Spartacus-Weishaupt to those of Karl Marx, and down to Trotsky (Russia), Bela Kun (Hungary), Rosa Luxembourg (Germany), and Emma Goldman (United States)... this worldwide conspiracy for the overthrow of civilisation and for the reconstitution of society on the basis of arrested development, of envious malevolence, and impossible equality, has been steadily growing. It has been the mainspring of every subversive movement during the 19th century; and now at last this band of extraordinary personalities from the underworld of the great cities of Europe and America have gripped the Russian people by the hair of their heads and have become practically the undisputed masters of that enormous empire.” (Writing on 'Zionism versus Bolshevism' in the Illustrated Sunday Herald, February 8, 1920)

Mahatma Gandhi

Indian activist and statesmen

“Palestine belongs to the Arabs in the same sense that England belongs to the English or France belongs to the French. It is wrong and inhuman to impose the Jews on the Arabs. What is going on in Palestine today cannot be justified by any moral code of conduct... Surely it would be a crime against humanity to reduce the proud Arabs so that Palestine can be restored to the Jews partly or wholly as their national home.” (Mohandas Gandhis Magazine, 1938)

...What makes the invoking of Gandhi's name particularly ironic is that Gandhi was hostile to the idea of creating the State of Israel in the first place. He charged that the use of Jewish force (even though it was in self-defense) in the struggle to establish Israel had "vulgarized" and "debased" the Zionist ideal.... Instead of heaping blame on Israel, Gandhi's admirers, Wilentz and Bhutani included, should be using their columns to condemn the immorality of Palestinian Arab violence against Israel... T. S. Eliot

Poet

...But this or such was Bleistein's way: / A saggy bending of the knees / And elbows, with the palms turned out, /
Chicago Semite Viennese. / A lustreless protrusive eye
Stares from the protozoic slime / At a perspective of Cana-letto. / The smoky candle end of time / Declines. On the Rialto once. / The rats are underneath the piles./ The jew is underneath the lot. / Money in furs. The boatman smiles,...

Bleistein with a Cigar

...My house is a decayed house, / And the jew squats on the window sill, the owner, / Spawned in some estaminet of Antwerp, / Blistered in Brussels, patched and peeled in London. / The goat coughs at night in the field overhead;...

Gerontion

Phlebas the Phoenician, a fortnight dead, / Forgot the cry of gulls, and the deep sea swell / And the profit and loss. /
A current under sea / Picked his bones in whispers. As he rose and fell / He passed the stages of his age and youth / Entering the whirlpool. / Gentile or jew / O you who turn the wheel and look to windward, / Consider Phlebas, who was once handsome and tall as you.

(Wasteland, Death by Water)

George Patton

General, Governor of Germany-US Zone, 1945

“...This happened to be the feast of Yom Kippur, so they were all collected in a large, wooden building, which they called a synagogue. It behooved General Eisenhower to make a speech to them. We entered the synagogue, which was packed with the greatest stinking bunch of humanity I have ever seen. When we got about halfway up, the head rabbi, who was dressed in a fur hat similar to that worn by Henry VIII of England and in a surplice heavily embroidered and very filthy, came down and met the General ... The smell was so terrible that I almost fainted and actually about three hours later lost my lunch as the result of remembering it.”
From a diary entry for September 17, 1945

“...Evidently the virus started by Morgenthau and Baruch of a Semitic revenge against all Germans is still working... Harrison and his ilk believe that the Displaced Person is a human being, which he is not, and this applies particularly to the Jews, who are lower than animals.” From a September diary entry

“...I am frankly opposed to this war criminal stuff. It is not cricket and is Semitic. I am also opposed to sending POW's to work as slaves in foreign lands, where many will be starved to death...” In a letter to his wife of September 14, 1945

“...I have been at Frankfurt for a civil government conference. If what we are doing (to the Germans) is 'Liberty, then give me death.' I can't see how Americans can sink so low. It is Semitic, and I am sure of it.” In a letter to his wife

“...Today we received orders... in which we were told to give the Jews special accommodations. If for Jews, why not Catholics, Mormons, etc.?...” From a diary entry

“...There is a very apparent Semitic influence in the press. They are trying to do two things: first, implement communism, and second, see that all businessmen of German ancestry and non-Jewish antecedents are thrown out of their jobs.” After a press conference on September 22, diary entry

“...I have been just as furious as you at the compilation of lies which the communist and Semitic elements of our government have leveled against me and practically every other commander. In my opinion it is a deliberate attempt to alienate the soldier vote from the commanders, because the communists know that soldiers are not communistic, and they fear what eleven million votes (of veterans) would do...” In a letter to General J.G. Harbord, October 22, 1945.

~~When the 1970 epic film “Patton” was released, there was not a word in it about well-documented evidence that the great Army commander was a virulent anti-Semite who favored the fallen Nazi guards over their former Jewish inmates. Indeed, it was that fact that played the single most important role in Eisenhower's sacking Patton. George Patton has long been an American hero. There was no greater fighting general. Yet, whenever his name is mentioned in the presence of a Jew, the ugly memory of Patton's biases surfaces. Sir Hartley Shawcross

Britain's chief prosecutor at the Nuremberg trials, British Attorney General

"Step by step, I have arrived at the conviction that the aims of Communism in Europe are sinister and fatal. At the Nuremberg Trials, I, together with my Russian colleague, condemned Nazi Aggression and Terror. I believe now that Hitler and the German People did not want war. But we declared war on Germany, intent on destroying it, in accordance with our principle of Balance of Power, and we were encouraged by the "Americans"* around Roosevelt. We ignored Hitler's pleading, not to enter into war. Now we are forced to realize that Hitler was right. He offered us the co-operation of Germany: instead, since 1945, we have been facing the immense power of the Soviet Empire. I feel ashamed and humiliated to see that the aims we accused Hitler of, are being relentlessly pursued now, only under a different label." (Ashamed and Humiliated The British Attorney General, Sir Hartley Shawcross, said in a speech at Stourbridge, March 16/84 (AP)). *Quotation marks in AP original.

Spiro Agnew

Vice-President of the United States

“The people who own and manage national impact media are Jewish and, with other influential Jews, helped create a disastrous U.S. Mid-east policy. All you have to do is check the real policy makers and owners and you find a much higher concentration of Jewish people than you're going to find in the population. By national impact media I am referring to the major news wire services, pollsters, Time and Newsweek Magazines, the New York Times, Washington Post, and the International Herald Tribune. For example, CBS' Mr. (William) Paley's Jewish. Mr. Julian Goodman, who runs NBC, and there's a Leonard Goldenson at ABC. Mrs. Katherine Graham owns the Washington Post and Mr. Sulzberger the New York Times. They are all Jews!

“You go down the line in that fashion...not just with ownership but go down to the managing posts and discretionary posts... and you'll find that through their aggressiveness and their inventiveness, they now dominate the news media. Not only in the media, but in academic communities, the financial communities, in the foundations, in all sorts of highly visible and influential services that involve the public, they now have a tremendous voice.

“Our policy in the Middle East in my judgment is disastrous, because it's not even-handed. I see no reason why nearly half the foreign aid this nation has to give goes to Israel, except for the influence of this Zionist lobby. I think the power of the news media is in the hands of a few people...it's not subject to control of the voters, it's subject only to the whim of the board of directors.”

With Pope John Paul II

Rev. Billy Graham

Evangelist

“The Jewish stranglehold on the media has got to be broken – or the country's going down the drain.” (In a 1972 conversation with President Richard Nixon, according to a tape of their Oval Office meeting released by the National Archives in 2002.)

~~When the National Archives released the latest portion of Richard Nixon's White House tapes two months ago, the most revelatory 90 minutes captured the president and his favorite minister, the Rev. Billy Graham, chatting in 1972 about how Jews control the media. No sooner had Nixon finished his inventory of all of the major newspapers and magazines that are "totally dominated by Jews" than Graham, not to be outdone, added, "This stranglehold has got to be broken, or the country's going down the drain." For many American Jews, that episode merely confirmed their direst suspicions about evangelical Christianity. Here was its leading figure, its very embodiment in the postwar decades, trafficking in a classic canard of anti-Semitism. What further proof was needed that conservative Christians hate us, want to convert us, or both? Yet in Washington these past few weeks, American Jews have found the strangest of bedfellows. The speakers at a major pro-Israel rally on April 15 included a prominent Christian talk-show host, Janet Parshall... Samuel G. George Washington (?)

First President and founder of the United States of America

“...They work more effectively against us, than the enemy's armies. They are a hundred times more dangerous to our liberties and the great cause we are engaged in...It is much to be lamented that each state, long ago, has not hunted them down as pests to society and the greatest enemies we have to the happiness of America.”

(Maxims of George Washington by A.A. Appleton & Co.)

“...Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence, I conjure you to believe me, fellow-citizens, the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake; since history and experience prove that foreign influence is one of the most baneful foes of republican Government. But that jealousy, to be useful, must be impartial; else it becomes the instrument of the very influence to be avoided, instead of a defense against it. Excessive partiality for one foreign nation, and excessive dislike of another, cause those whom they actuate to see danger only on one side, and serve to veil and even second the arts of influence on the other. Real Patriots, who may resist the intrigues of the favorite, are liable to become suspected and odious; while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people, to surrender their interests. Why forego the advantages of so peculiar a situation? Why quit our own to stand upon foreign ground? Why, by interweaving our destiny with that of any part of Europe, entangle our peace and prosperity in the toils of European ambition, rivalry, interest, humor, or caprice?”

(Washington's Farewell Address).

Francis Bacon

British statesman and writer

"...[Jews] hate the name of Christ and have a secret and innate rancor against the people among whom they live." (The New Atlantis)

Maria Theresia

Queen of Hungary and Bohemia

"Henceforth no Jew, no matter under what name, will be allowed to remain here without my written permission. I know of no other troublesome pest within the state than this race, which impoverished the people by their fraud, usury and money-lending and commits all deeds which an honorable man despises. Subsequently they have to be removed and excluded from here as much as possible."

Count Helmuth von Moltke

General

"...The Jews form a state, and, obeying their own laws, they evade those of their host country. The Jews always consider an oath regarding a Christian not binding. During the Campaign of 1812 the Jews were spies, they were paid by both sides, they betrayed both sides."

Robert Louis Stevenson

Writer

"...Jew storekeepers have already learned the advantage to be gained from this [unlimited credit]: they lead on the farmer into irretrievable indebtedness, and keep him ever after as their bondsman hopelessly grinding in the mill." (Across the Plains)

Johann Gottfried Herder

Philosopher

"The Jews are a despicable race of cunning dealers, a race that never desires honor, home and country. That they ever could have been valiant warriors and honest peasants does not appear credible to us, for the disposition of a nation does not alter so quickly. A ministry in which the Jew is supreme, a household in which a Jew has the key to the wardrobe and the management of the finances, a department or a commissary where the Jew does the main business, a university where the Jew acts as brokers and money lenders to students, are Pontine marshes which cannot be drained." (Bekehrung der Juden)

"The Jewish people is and remains in Europe an Asiatic people alien to our part of the world, bound to that old law which it received in a distant climate, and which, according to its confession, it cannot do away with...How many of this alien people can be tolerated without injury to the true citizen?"

"For thousands of years, since their emergence on the stage of history, the Jews were a parasitic growth on the stem of other nations, a race of cunning brokers all over the earth. They have caused great evil to many ill-organized states, by retarding the free and natural economic development of their indigent population." (Hebraer, in Ideen)

Richard Wagner

Composer

"...On one thing am I clear: that is the influence which the Jews have gained upon our mental life, as displayed in the deflection and falsification of our highest culture-tendencies. Whether the downfall of our culture can be arrested by a violent rejection of the destructive alien element, I am unable to decide, since that would require forces with whose existence I am unacquainted." (Judaism in Music)

~~Such is anti-Semitism's power that it has beguiled not just demagogues and those other, ordinarily vicious enemies of the Jews, but also creative artists of the highest quality. The educated public, however, is liable to forget this, and so, every few years, it needs to be reminded of what many of its favorite authors were capable.~~
